THE CHITTAGONG HILL-TRACTS
FRONTIER POLICE REGULATION, 1881

Regulation III of 1881

[7th December 1881]

The Chittagong Hill-tracts Frontier Police Regulation, 1881.

Preamble	Whether the Frontier Police of the Hill-tracts of Chittagong enrolled under Act No. V of 1861 (for the regulation of Police) perform services of a quasi-military character; and whereas the provisions of the said Act, and the orders and rules framed under section 12 thereof, have been found insufficient for the maintenance of discipline among such police, and it is therefore expedient to make further provision for the maintenance of discipline among them;
	It is hereby enacted as follows:-
Short title	1. This Regulation may be called the Chittagong Hill-tracts Frontier Police Regulation, 1881.
Local extent	It applies to all persons now or hereafter appointed under the said Act No. V of 1861 to be Frontier Police officers and posted to the Hill-tracts of Chittagong. [Commencement] Rep. by the Amending Act, 1903 (I of 1903)
Interpretation clause	2. In this Regulation, unless there is something repugnant in the subject or context,—
“Active Service”	“active service” means service at the frontier outposts or against hostile tribes or other persons in the field;
“Superintendent” and “District Superintendent”	“Superintendent” and “District Superintendent” mean the Superintendent of the Hill-tracts of Chittagong and the District Superintendent of Police within the same tracts, respectively; and the expressions “reason to believe”, “criminal force” “assault” and “fraudulently.” have the meanings assigned them respectively in the ¹[Penal Code].

“reason to believe”
“criminal force”
“assault” and “fraudulently”

- (n) being a sentry, sleeps upon his post, or quits it without being regularly relieved, or without leave;

shall be punished with imprisonment, with or without hard labour, which may extend to one year.

5. Any person subject to this Regulation, not being above the rank of havildar, who, while on active duty commits any of the offences specified in section 3, or in section 4, clauses (a) to (k), both inclusive, may, in lieu of or addition to any punishment to which he is liable under those sections be punished with whipping.

Corporal
Punishment

In no case, if the cat-of-nine-tails be the instrument employed, shall the punishment of whipping exceed lashes, or, if the ratan be employed, shall the punishment exceed thirty stripes.

6. In addition to the powers conferred upon them by the rules made under section 12 of the said Act No. V of 1861 the Superintendent, the District Superintendent, or an Assistant District Superintendent of Police in command of a detachment, may, without a formal trial, award to any person subject to his authority and to whom this Act applies the following punishments for the commission of petty offences against discipline which are not otherwise provided for or which are not of a sufficiently serious nature to call for a prosecution before a Criminal Court (that is to say):-

Minor
punishment

- (a) imprisonment to the extent of seven days in the quarter-guard, or such other place in or near the lines as may be considered suitable, with forfeitures of all pay and allowances during its continuance,
- (b) punishment-drill, extra guard, fatigue or other duty, not exceeding thirty days in duration, with or without confinement to lines.

Any of these punishments may be awarded separately or in combination with the others.

Where person sentenced to imprisonment to be confined

7. Any person sentenced under this Regulation to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months shall, when also dismissed the service, be imprisoned in the nearest jail; but, when not also dismissed the service, he may, at the discretion of the convicting officer, subject to revision by the Superintendent, be confined in the quarter-guard or such other place as such officer may consider suitable.

Prosecution, etc., under other enactments

8. Nothing in this Regulation shall prevent any person from being prosecuted under the said Act No. V of 1861 or any order or rule framed thereunder, or under any other enactment for the time being in force, for any act or omission punishable hereunder, or from being liable under any other enactment to any other or higher penalty than is provided for such act or omission by this Regulation:

Provided that no person shall be punished twice for the same offence.

9. Nothing contained in the said Act No. V of 1861 shall be deemed to prevent the ¹[Government] from investing any police officer with the powers of a Magistrate for the purpose of inquiring into or trying any offence committed by a police officer and punishable under the said Act or this Regulation.

¹ The word "Government" was substituted, for the words "Provincial Government" by Article 8 of the Bangladesh (Adaptation of Existing Laws) Order, 1972 (President's Order No. 48 of 1972).
